GIVING THANKS

By Raelyn Pracht

Texas District Church Extension Fund has many reasons to give thanks this year. Our ministry is truly blessed by God's provision of investors and borrowers. In addition, every Lead Rep, Stamp Rep and Pastor has played a vital part in helping Texas CEF fulfill their mission of extending God's Kingdom. Thank you for your prayers for the CEF ministry. Thank you for your selfless time spent answering questions and promoting Texas CEF. Above all, thank you for your partnership in ministry!

Matthew 9:38 says "therefore pray earnestly to the Lord of the harvest to send out laborers into his harvest."

With the help of CEF Reps and Pastors, the laborers sent out into the harvest, we are able to share the excitement of CEF with congregations throughout Texas. We are thankful for this strong partnership!

As we head into the end of this year, it's time to decide if you would still like to be a CEF Rep. Of course, we would love to have you, but we do understand the commitment involved and that, eventually, there will come a time of transition. If you are interested in passing the baton, please contact Raelyn at 512-646-1242 or at rpracht@texascef.org to discuss the best way to approach the transition.
